Paul,

I just got this cost estimate from EA. I would appreciate it if you could look at the assumptions & costs & let me know what you think. Some of the assumptions are different from things we discussed in the past, so let me know if any revisions are appropriate. One thing they included was different elevations for the inner & outer cofferdam wall, which is interesting. Also, they mentioned about ¾ of the removal would be done in the dry instead of 100%, so I need to discuss that with them

Have a good weekend.

Thanks,

Gary Miller

Mr. Miller, Please find attached the Draft technical memorandum for additional excavation at the San Jacinto River Waste Pits site. Please note this document does not have any information relating to the Corps of Engineers information and when that information is made available, changes may need to be made to this technical memorandum.
